TURNED WIFE NO. 3 OUTDOORS

Millionaire Brinkerhoff's Version of His Latest Trouble.

Daniel J. Brinkerhoff, the millionaire cracker baker, was questioned by an Evening World reporter at his home in the Yosemite Plaza, sixty-second street and Park avenue, this morning, regarding the events which led to his ejection of his wife from his apartments last Monday afternoon.

Mr. Brinkerhoff's first wife is dead. He obtained a divorce from his second wife about six months ago, and she is now married to Butcher William P. Durando. Brinkerhoff got the divorce on the statutory grounds, she brought a cross suit, naming Miss Blanche Hatter as the co-respondent. Miss Hatter has since become Brinkerhoff's third wife.

Mr. Brinkerhoff said: "My present wife is the niece of the wife of my former partner in the cracker business, Thomas M. Olive. When I secured my divorce from my first wife, who was a beauty, I resolved to marry a plain woman. I knew Miss Hatter's poverty, pitied her and married her. She seemed like a nice young woman then."

"About a week after we were married my son was married."

Mr. Brinkerhoff then made several allegations against his wife, stating that he had found it impossible to live with her. He detailed the circumstances of her ejection from his home, and declared that he would not live with her again.

"I don't want to harm her in any way," he said, "but she must leave me alone."

Mrs. Brinkerhoff is supposed to be with her sister in Brooklyn.

TORN DOWN BY THE POLICE.Excitement in Yonkers Over a Display of Anarchist Plugs.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 21.—There was much excitement here this morning during the Columbian exercises over the display of anarchist plugs from the windows of a house on North Broadway occupied by a Russian family named Frumensburg.

The flags were torn down by the police.

NEW YORK LOSES SEVILLA HOME.The Courts Decide that the Wealthy Peruvian's Request is Invalid.

The decision of Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, that the bequest of $500,000 made by Don Jose Sevilla, the wealthy Peruvian, in his will to the city of New York for establishing the Sevilla Home here was invalid, has been affirmed by the General Term, and it is probable that the plan can never be carried out.

The case may be taken to the Court of Appeals, but there is very little prospect that the city will succeed there, for the ground upon which the bequest was held to be invalid was that the persons upon whom the trust was to devolve were not named in the will, and besides, by its terms it violated the statute against perpetuities.

It was directed that the fund should be turned over by the executors to a Board of Managers to be appointed by a Board of Supervisors. Among the names of the Board were William Dowd, and others, and the Board was not to erect the home till two years after the fund came into its hands, the income to be used in the interim to purchase a site.

Senor Sevilla left about $5,000,000, and this bequest will probably go to the Sociedad de Beneficencia de Lima, which is the customary legatee under the will.

Queer Cable Road Fatality.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A cottage Grove avenue cable car collided at Sixty-ninth street last night with a wagon, the tongue of which struck a man on the front seat of the car, passing entirely through his body. The man died before he could be removed to a hospital.

BARON BRANDENSTEIN DEAD.His Body at the Morgue Ticketed Simply "Adolph Brandt."

In a stone box at the Morgue lies the body of Adolph Brandt. Beyond the information that the man was fifty-six years old when he died and a German by birth the little white ticket tucked on the end of the box reveals nothing of the man's past.

Adolph Brandt's real name was Edgar Adolph, Baron von Brandenstein, the descendant of a noble family and at one time a member of the German Diplomatic Corps at Rome. After he had gambled his fortune away his prospective wife, Lady Harriet Berkeley, threw him over, and the Baron came to America, where he drank himself to death, dying in Bellevue yesterday.
